

Confessions of an <h1>INTERIOR DESIGNER</h1>	Name: _____ Hour: _____ <h2>WORKSHEET</h2>
--	--

REVIEW

Directions: After watching “Confessions of an Interior Designer,” answer the following questions.

1. What career tracts can you go down?
2. Why will you have to do an internship even though you already have a degree?
3. What is the salary of an interior designer?
4. In what ways do interior designers get paid?
5. What is an interior decorator?
6. What is an interior designer responsible for?

7. What does an interior designer not do?
8. Why does an interior designer use a show room?
9. What can you do on the commercial side of interior design?
10. How long can a project last?
11. What is the last thing you do in interior design?
12. What does Brandi like best about her career?
13. What does Brandi like the least about her career?
14. How does she spend her day?
15. What does she bring to an interview with a new customer?
16. What is a challenge with interior design as a career?

Confessions of an INTERIOR DESIGNER	TEACHERS KEY
---	--------------------------------

REVIEW

Directions: After watching “Confessions of an Interior Designer,” answer the following questions.

1. What career tracts can you go down?

Residential, kitchen and bath, and commercial.

2. Why will you have to do an internship even though you already have a degree?

There is still a lot you need to learn which you will only learn in the field.

3. What is the salary of an interior designer?

It varies, an assistant will make $25-30,000, and a senior position will make up to $100,000.

4. In what ways do interior designers get paid?

They can either work on an hourly basis, or they can sell the products to the customers.

5. What is an interior decorator?

Someone who is untrained, doesn't have a college degree or license

6. What is an interior designer responsible for?

All the visual things: furniture, accessories, art work, light fixtures, wall colors, plumbing, flooring

7. What does an interior designer not do?

structural design

8. Why does an interior designer use a show room?

in order to see the qualities, finishes, and different types of fabrics. Also to show the customer what they are buying

9. What can you do on the commercial side of interior design?

Space planning, interior offices, hotel, and restaurants

10. How long can a project last?

4 to 5 months to 2 years or more

11. What is the last thing you do in interior design?

Bring out the accessories, artwork, pillows and throws.

12. What does Brandi like best about her career?

She gets invited into people's homes and can see how they entertain, work, and live in their homes.

13. What does Brandi like the least about her career?

It is a lot of work.

14. How does she spend her day?

10% design, 20% working with clients, architects, builders, and vendors, and 70% with paper work (emailing, correspondence, etc.)

15. What does she bring to an interview with a new customer?

a portfolio

16. What is a challenge with interior design as a career?

It is a hot new job that everyone is trying to get into and it is hard to get that first job, it is a competitive market.